Biographies of Members of the Politburo

General Secretary Tô Lâm

General Tô Lâm, born on July 10, 1957, hometown Hung Yen province, was unanimously re-elected General Secretary of the Communist Party of Vietnam on January 23, 2026.

He has been a member of the Party Central Committee across its 11th to 14th terms and has served on the Politburo since the 12th term. Academically, he holds a Doctorate in Law and is a professor, having graduated from the People's Security University, one of Vietnam's premier institutions for security and law studies.

After graduating from the People's Security University, he began his career in 1979 at the Ministry of Public Security, advancing through roles in political protection and national security, including director-level positions and the ranks of Major General, Lieutenant General, Colonel General, and eventually General in January 2019. His leadership extended to positions such as Deputy Minister and Minister of Public Security, as well as Vice Head and then Head of the Central Steering Committee on Anti-Corruption, and Member of the National Defense and Security Council. During his tenure as Minister of Public Security (2016 – April 2024), he led a sweeping anti-corruption campaign that removed numerous high-level officials.

He initially assumed the role of Party General Secretary on August 3, 2024, following the death of his predecessor, Nguyen Phu Trong. In 2024, Tô Lâm briefly served as President of Vietnam, and later as both President and General Secretary, before continuing as General Secretary from October 2024 onward. His career reflects decades of service in both security and political leadership at the highest levels of Vietnam's government and Communist Party.

Tran Thanh Man

Chairman of the National Assembly

Trần Thanh Mẫn, born on August 12, 1962, hometown Can Tho Province, has been serving as Chairman of the National Assembly since May 2024 and Chairman of the National Election Council. He holds a Doctorate in Economics.

He has been a member of the Communist Party Central Committee from its 10th to 14th terms and has served on the Politburo since the 13th term. Holding a doctorate in economics, Trần Thanh Mẫn began his political career in youth and local government organizations in the Southern Hau Giang and Can Tho provinces, advancing through leadership positions including Chairman of the People's Committee of Can Tho City (2008–2010) and Can Tho province's Party Secretary (2011-2015). He later held senior roles in the Vietnam Fatherland Front, serving as Vice Chairman, Secretary-General, and Chairman. From 2019 to 2021, he was Vice Chairman of the National Assembly, before being elected its Chairman in May 2024. In 2025, he also became Chairman of the National Election Council, reflecting his central role in both legislative leadership and the organization of national elections in Vietnam.

Tran Cam Tu

Permanent Member of the 14th Party Secretariat

Trần Cẩm Tú, born on August 25, 1961, hometown Ha Tinh province, is a senior Vietnamese politician currently serving as Permanent Member of the Party Secretariat. He has been a member of the Party Central Committee from its 10th to 14th terms and has served on the Politburo since the 13th term. He holds a Doctorate in Economics and has a long career spanning both local governance and central Party oversight.

He began his career in the forestry and services sector in Ha Tinh province, advancing from deputy head to director of the Hương Sơn Forestry and Services Company between 1995 and 2004. He then transitioned into local government, serving as Vice Secretary and Chairman of the Hương Sơn District People's Committee, and later as Chairman of the Inspection Commission of the Hà Tĩnh Provincial Party Committee.

From 2007 to 2011, he held key positions in the Party's disciplinary apparatus, including membership and deputy chairmanship of the Central Inspection Commission. Between 2011 and 2015, he served as Secretary of the Thái Bình Provincial Party Committee before returning to the Central Inspection Commission, where he rose to Chairman from 2018 to 2024 and also served as Deputy Head of the Central Steering Committee on Anti-Corruption.

Le Minh Hung

Chairman of the Party Central Committee's Organisation Commission

Lê Minh Hưng, born on December 11, 1970, with hometown in Ha Tinh province. He is a prominent Vietnamese politician currently serving as Head of the Party Central Organization Commission. He has been a member of the Party Central Committee since its 12th term and has served on the Politburo since the 13th term.

He began his career in 1993 at the State Bank of Vietnam in the Department of International Relations, working on matters related to the International Monetary Fund (IMF). From 1998 to 2002, he held leadership roles in the Asian Development Bank unit within the bank, and later advanced to Deputy Director and then Director of the Department of International Cooperation. Between 2010 and 2011, he served as Director of the Department of Personnel and Organization, before being appointed Deputy Governor of the State Bank in 2011. From 2016 to 2020, Lê Minh Hưng served as Governor of the State Bank of Vietnam, overseeing national monetary policy and banking regulation. At age 46, he was the youngest governor in the bank's history.

Following his tenure at the central bank, he transitioned to Party administration, serving as Chief of the Party Central Office from 2020 to 2024. In May 2024, he was appointed Head of the Party Central Organization Commission, and in June 2024 he assumed the role permanently, directing the Party's personnel, organizational strategy, and cadre management. He has also been elected as a member of the 15th National Assembly.

Academically, he holds a Master's degree in Public Policy and a Bachelor's degree in French. He used to attend IMF's Market Economics and Financial Analysis course at Shanghai University of Finance and Economics in 1996, followed by a Master's program in Economics at Saitama University, Japan (1996–1997).
