

Anil Argilla
Head, Emerging Asia Region
Pfizer Biopharmaceuticals Group
Pfizer Inc.

Anil Argilla is the Head of Emerging Asia Region, Pfizer Biopharmaceuticals Group. He is responsible for Indian Sub-continent, Southeast Asian countries, Hong Kong and Taiwan. Concurrently, he is also Pfizer's Cluster Lead for Vietnam, Indonesia, Pakistan and Singapore.

Anil has more than 14 years' experience in the pharmaceutical industry, all of which working in Pfizer, during this tenure with Pfizer he has worked and lived in India, China, Hong Kong, Indonesia and now based in Singapore. He has handled a diverse range of roles including Country Manger Indonesia, Regional Commercial Lead, Business Operations as well as Strategy and Organizational Effectiveness .

He is a well-respected corporate executive and thought leader in the pharmaceutical industry, and a highly experienced professional whose career spans across multiple industries. He is passionate about solving for Equity in Healthcare Access and digital application in life sciences industry.

Prior to joining Pfizer, he was with a management consulting firm and was focused on change management and organizational transformation. His consultancy experience provided him exposure to different industries, including Automobile, IT/ ITES, Banking, Petrochemicals and other process industries.

Anil holds a bachelor's degree in Commerce from Osmania University. He received his master's degree in Personnel Management from Symbiosis Institute of Business Management.