

KIMSUKA NARASIMHAN
Chief Financial Officer – Asia Pacific,
Kimberly-Clark Corporation

Kimsuka Narasimhan is Vice President and Asia Pacific CFO for Kimberly-Clark Corporation, a $18.5 Billion consumer goods multinational known for its iconic consumer brands Kleenex tissue, Huggies diapers and Kotex feminine napkins. Kimberly-Clark is headquartered in Dallas, Texas, U.S.A. The Asia Pacific region is Kimberly-Clark’s biggest international region with a footprint in over 30 countries including China, Korea, Australia, ASEAN member states and India.

Kim is a 30-year veteran of the consumer goods industry, having served in several leadership positions at Unilever, where she worked for close to twenty years, and at PepsiCo, where she was for over ten years, prior to joining Kimberly-Clark.

In addition to her operational roles, Kim serves as an Independent Director on the Boards of Bharti Airtel, a telecom major, and of Astra Zeneca India.

She is a passionate advocate for women in STEM and actively supports initiatives around it.

Kim is based in Singapore.