

Executive Biography

Patrick Graham
Chief Executive Officer, Asia Pacific
Head of Strategy, Analytics and Innovation, International Markets
Cigna International

Covering 7 markets from New Zealand through to Indonesia, Patrick is responsible for the overall management, growth and profitability of Cigna's Asia Pacific operations. In addition to his P&L responsibilities Patrick oversees the IM wide Analytics, Innovation and Strategy teams.

Patrick joined Cigna in August 2011 as the Head of Sales and Business Development for the Health, Life and Accident division. He subsequently managed Cigna's high growth markets in Indonesia and Thailand as well as overseeing the market entry into India. He has been in his current role since January 2015.

Prior to joining Cigna, Patrick was with GE Capital for 15 years in various roles. He was as Chief Executive Officer of Tesco Card Services, a joint venture between GE and UK retailer Tesco. In this role Patrick led a team of 500 people distributing a range of finance, life and general insurance products to Tesco's 10 million customers in Thailand. Prior to that Patrick was responsible for starting up and running GE Capital's European Captive Insurer as well as their Asian Insurance Operations across 7 Asian markets.

Patrick has been based in Asia for almost 20 years between China, Hong Kong, Japan and Thailand.