

Julian Ha, Esq.

Julian Ha is a Partner and Practice Leader with the global executive search of Heidrick and Struggles. From the firm's Washington, D.C. office, Julian leads the Government Affairs and Trade Association practices and is a key member of the CEO and Board practices. He places CEOs and senior executives into public and private firms and mission-driven organizations across all industries, sectors and geographies.

Julian also spearheads the firm's "China Desk" and facilitates cross-border, leadership consulting projects. Over the span of his career, Julian has lived and operated in Beijing, Hong Kong, Singapore and Shanghai in various capacities including as a corporate attorney with Paul, Weiss and as an investment banking professional with Evolution Securities China. Julian is active with numerous Asia-related organizations such as The Committee of 100 and the US-China Business Council. He is also a Member of the National Committee on US-China Relations. Julian speaks fluent Shanghai dialect and is proficient in Mandarin Chinese.

Julian has extensive Boardroom experience. He has served on the board of China Recycling Energy Corporation (CREG), a NASDAQ-listed cleantech company where he chaired CREG's Compensation Committee and Propulsys, a privately-held, precision manufacturing company with operations in the U.S., Germany and China. Julian is currently a board member of the Public Affairs Council and National Association of Corporate Directors – D.C. Chapter. He also serves on the Americas Council of the Association of Executive Search Consultants.

Julian received his B.A. from Cornell University, his Masters degrees from the London School of Economics and Harvard University and his J.D. from The NYU School of Law. He attained a Certificate in Corporate Finance from The London Business School and holds a NACD Certificate of Director Education.