

Jon E. Huenemann

Vice President, U.S. & International Corporate Affairs

Philip Morris International (PMI) - Global Services Inc.

Mr. Huenemann joined this U.S. Fortune 100 Company in September 2010 and reports directly into top management. As a member of the company's global corporate affairs management team, he is responsible for corporate affairs strategic direction around the world while also overseeing the Washington, D.C., office and U.S. affairs and the company's external stakeholder relationships.

He brings over 30 years of experience to his role. Prior to his current position he coordinated an international practice group at a prestigious Washington, D.C., law firm. Before that he was a Senior Vice President at a global public affairs consultancy. While in government he spent over 15 years within the Executive Office of the President and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR). He held the position of Assistant U.S. Trade Representative and led efforts on many topics. Earlier he served: as a Presidential Management Fellow in the International Affairs Bureau at the Department of the Treasury; as an international economic policy advisor to a senior Senator on the Senate Finance Committee; as a co-coordinator of a multilateral development project affiliated with the UN Development Program; and, he started his career in 1979 as a researcher at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, D.C. He is on boards of research institutions and business organizations and has taught/lectured in universities.

Mr. Huenemann resides with his family in Alexandria, Virginia.